

NOW OPEN FOR APPLICATIONS

Master of Theology (MTh)

*Specialising in Theological Education for Economy of Life
(TEEL)*

The School of Arts at the University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN) is pleased to announce a new Master of Theology (MTh) by Dissertation with a special focus on Economic and Eco Justice.

This unique postgraduate programme is funded by the Council for World Mission (CWM) and is designed to attract students from around the world.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

- Candidates from CWM member churches
- Faith leaders from all faith communities.
- Candidates who are passionate in developing alternative Theologies that are life giving.

To submit completed forms

CLICK HERE

For more information, contact programme coordinator:

Professor Lillian Siwila | Siwila@ukzn.ac.za |
Tel: 0332606485 | Cell: 0794580868

Once your application is completed, please notify the Admissions Officer,

Mr. Alleyne Coleman - Email: colemanad@ukzn.ac.za

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The programme seeks to develop alternative forms of theological reflection that critically engage with imperial global systems which perpetuate economic and ecological injustices. It equips students with the knowledge and research skills to respond to pressing global challenges through interdisciplinary and contextual approaches.

Drawing on the work of George Enderle (2011), the programme explores how religious traditions shape economic life and influence responses to issues of justice, sustainability and human dignity.

PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

- Master of Theology (MTh) by Dissertation
- Specialisation in Economic and Eco Justice
- Funded by the Council for World Mission (CWM)
- Interdisciplinary and contextual research approach
- Global learning community
- Open to local and international applicants
- Mode of Delivery: 100% Online

Students will participate in scheduled online sessions and are required to complete and submit all research and assessment requirements.

What to include in the application:

- A copy of your ID
- Copy of your degree transcripts
- SAQA Certificate Copy for degrees obtained outside of SA
- Proof of Payment for Application